EAGLE

Nineteen Hundred and Eighty One
Hinds Junior College — Raymond, Ms.

Editor/Mickey Welsh
Advisor/Bob Hodges

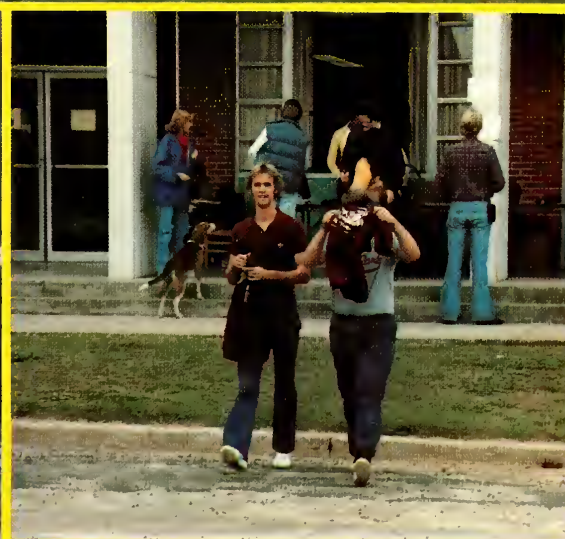

HOME (Hōm, or Sometimes Pronounced Hinds Junior College)

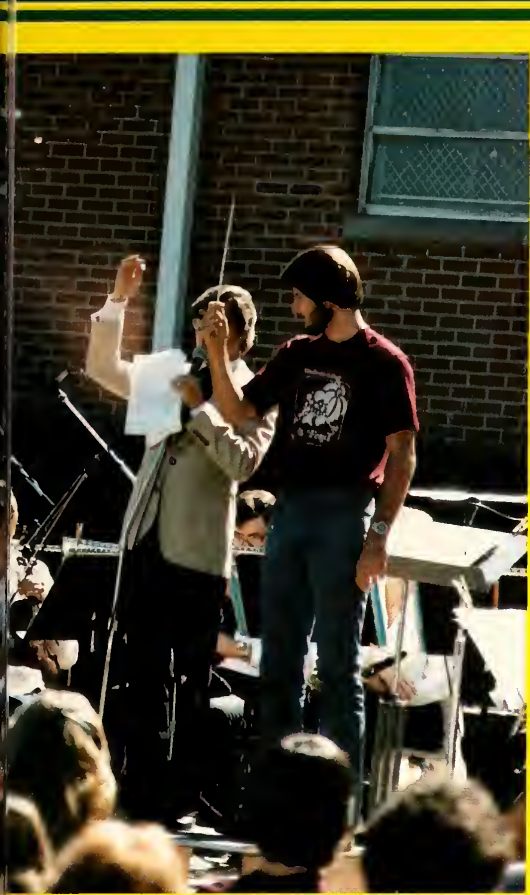

1. a place where one lives; residence;
habitation

2. any valued place with emotional attachment regarded as a refuge or place of origin

3. the place
where something is discovered,
founded,
developed, or promoted

4. a headquarters or base of operations from which activities are coordinated; home base

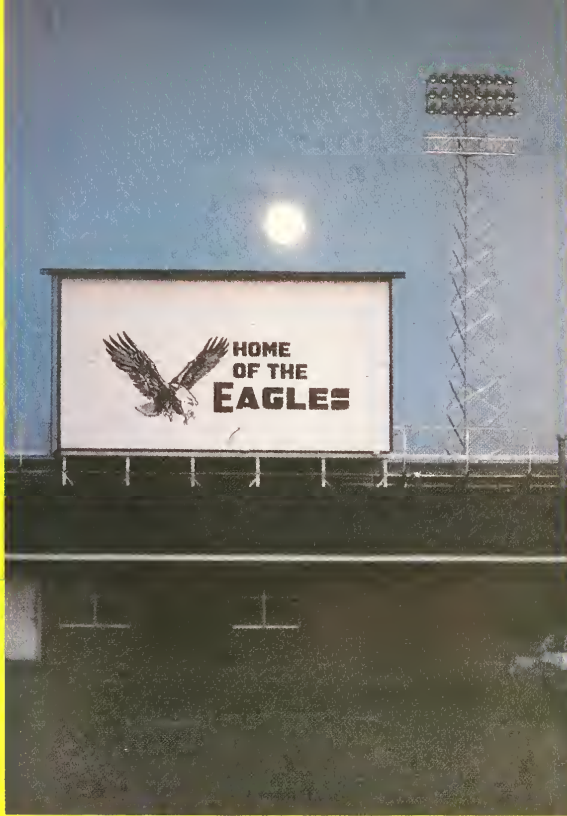

5. an institution where people are cared for

6. the physical structure or portion thereof within which one lives; an environment or haven or shelter of happiness and love

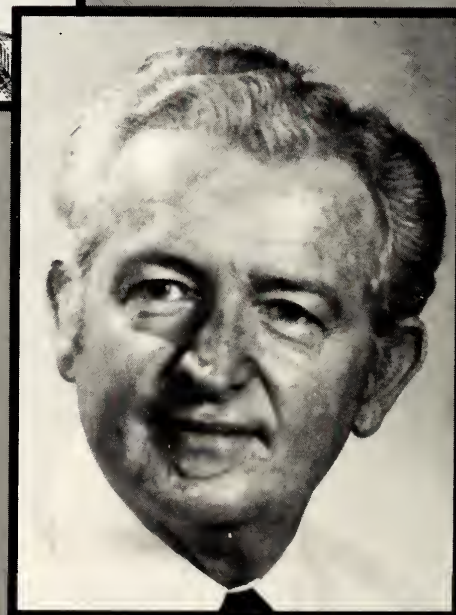

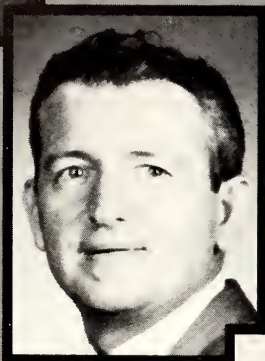

Home is different things to different people. Home is where the heart is, home is where one went to high school, where one grew up, or where one's parents live. Home is where you hang your hat. To many people home is HJC.

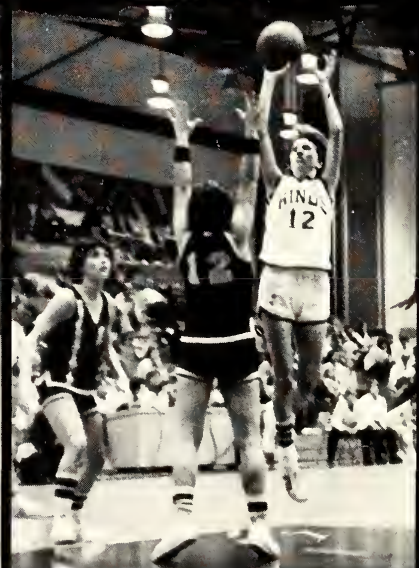

This home can take on many aspects; a dormitory room, an apartment, a trailer, a rooming house, a duplex, or living with parents. Students looking for a home choose a place where they can be comfortable, if not physically at least financially. They look for a place they can live, grow, and develop, not just a spot for existence.

Dedication

We the members of the Hinds Junior College Yearbook Staff proudly dedicate the 1981 Eagle to William W. Griffin. It is with great admiration and appreciation that we honor a man who has given so much service to Hinds, its students and faculty.

Miss Hinds Pageant

The Miss Hinds pageant is sponsored each year as a preliminary for the Miss Mississippi pageant. Competition consists of swim suit, evening gown, talent and interview.

Registration

For those who braved the lines, heat, and frustration of registration — this tribute is for you.

The registration experience beginning August 18 held much more in store for the registrants of Hinds — especially freshmen who had not been forewarned of the trials and tribulations of early registration hours, parking spaces in short supply, long lines in great supply, sweltering heat, bitter cold, closed classes, empty pockets after fee assessment — but of course the thrill of the exit door drawing nearer.

The endless lines at the bookstore following the receipt of a schedule also helped to create a feeling of “togetherness” with fellow Hindsonians.

The lines, crowds and confusion may seem to have been nothing more than a test of the student's endurance, but considering the acquaintances made may help to rationalize the monotony of it all.

A better thought still is that it comes only once a semester.

Halloween

Halloween, being a time for the abnormal — Hinds obliged by hosting a Halloween dance full of the abnormal.

While ghostly apparitions were few — creatures created by the hopelessly twisted minds of the participants were frequent.

Choir Christmas Program

The Hinds choir department presented their 25th annual Christmas concert December 9 and 10 in the men's gymnasium. The theme of this year's program was "A Dream is a Wish Your Heart Makes" with choir members attired to depict a child's fantasy of Christmas.

"Johnny Johnson"

Hinds Theatre troupe, The Lendon Players, presented for their fall production the play "Johnny Johnson," November 4-8.

Set in World War I America, the plot centered on a young sculptor who sets himself apart from the other townspeople in that he refuses to enlist in the army due to his feeling of the wrongness of this particular war and all war.

Under pressure from his girlfriend, however, Johnny eventually enlists only to be thought mad because he wishes to put an end to the whole bloody business.

Dances

Dressing Room Dedication

Former Hinds football great, Jim Taylor, who went on to play professionally with the Green Bay Packers and the New Orleans Saints ball clubs, was honored this year when the new dressing room in the Mayo Fieldhouse was named for him.

According to Head Football Coach Bill Buckner, "Jim Taylor is one of a kind. He's done some things that folks will never do in professional football."

In a talk with Hinds football players in the spring of 1980, Taylor said, "I would never have made it as well as I did had I not been given the chance to play at Hinds."

Visitors

Raymond Campus

Several notable persons came to the Hinds Raymond campus to share their talents and views.

September 19 in front of the cafeteria, Leigh Howard Stevens performed for the student body. Stevens, a marimbist working as the 1980 Aetna Affiliate Artist for Jackson, also performed the works of Bach, Schumann, Tchaikovsky and contemporary composers who have written expressly for him.

Hinds Alumnus and candidate for the fourth district congressional seat, Britt Singletary, visited campus several times to recruit votes and campaign workers in his effort to win the November balloting.

Campus Changes

The Hinds campuses have gone through massive changes in the past few years. Instrumental in the planning of the Hinds of the future has been the Dallas-based firm of Myrick, Newman and Dahlberg.

In the year 1980-81, Hinds saw the completion of the new football stadium lights and press box along with the new track encircling the field.

Also on the Raymond campus was the basic construction of the new vocational-technical complex. This building was one of the first to feel a wave of the future as solar panels were installed to heat water for the new barber shop to be housed there.

The Vicksburg-Warren County branch also saw the construction of additional classroom space.

Hinds Connection — a Public Relations group . . .

The view's really better up here?

Knock it off — we dare you!

MAD

I'm not gonna tell 'em — but that's not the way to get there . . .

I heard they were making a sequel to American Gigolo . . .

I can't wait for the domestic life . . .

Hey Mommy, there's a doggie doin' something under your chair . . .

C'mon, we've heard your stupid see-food joke before . . .

I'm gonna 10-01 your 10-56 if you don't 10-11 your Z-28 in space 11... NOW!

What! You mean she doesn't know who I am? I don't believe that...

Yes, let me make one thing perfectly clear...

"Hogtying 1313" students practicing their craft...

Tonight folks, a special treat — The Bourbon, I mean the burpin, I mean The Urban Cowboy...

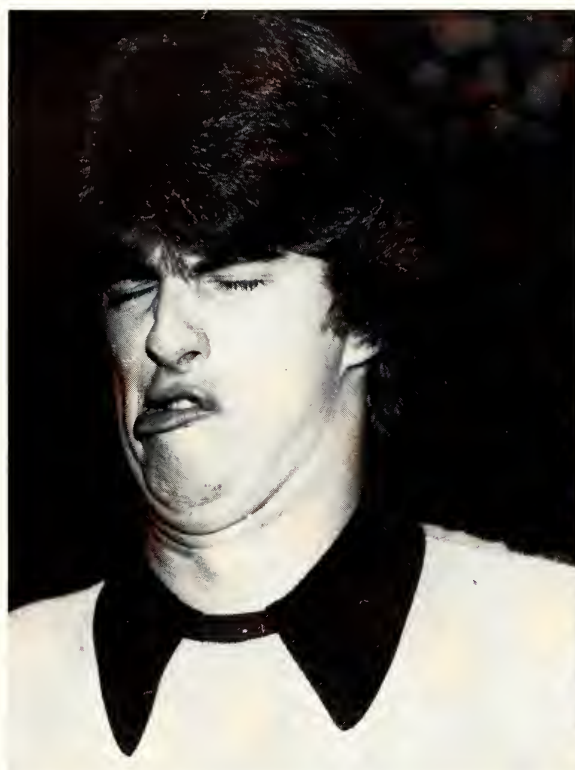

MAD

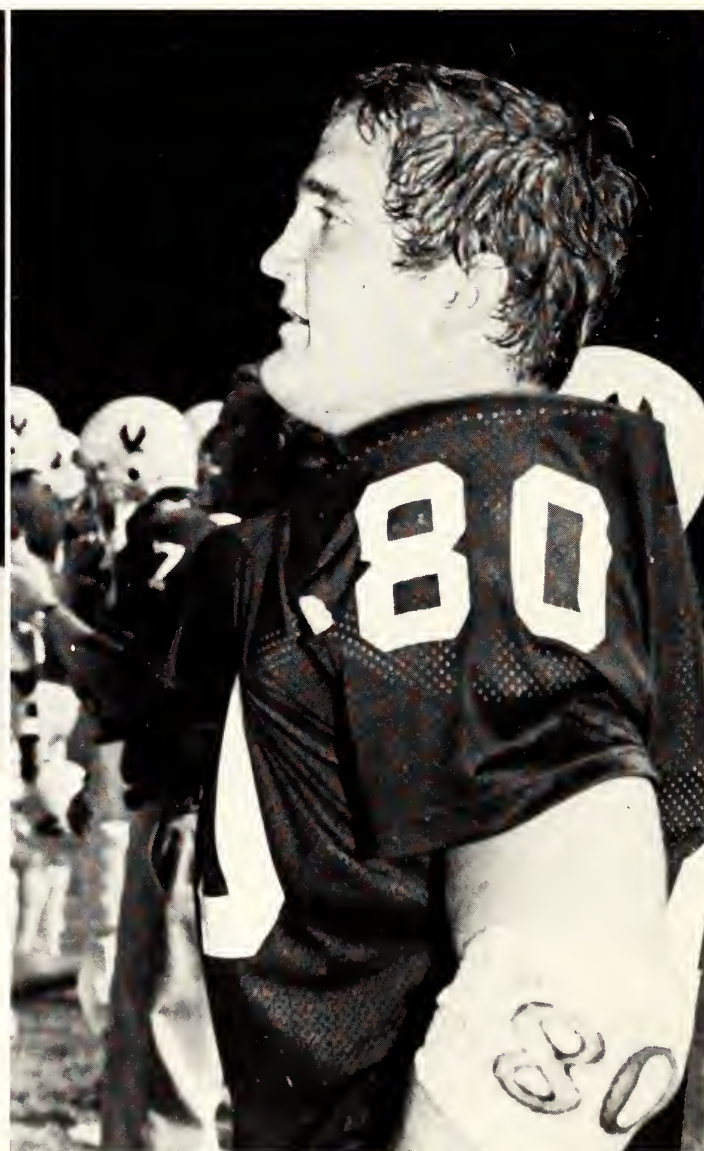

Your MOMA Itawamba?

Like WOW, this is really cosmic, y'know . . .

Will the real Emile please stand up?

If we don't do it my way, I'm not gonna play . . .

They call me Billy White Shoes Johnson . . .

They don't never let me play . . .

Why is this girl smiling?

You threw your what down?

Who cares!

Don't look now, but one of those seeds is crawling off the watermelon . . .

We'll be with you when Jimmy stops playing with his leg . . .

Yet another exciting assembly . . .

Come one, come all — see the men with elastic legs . . .

MAD

I'll take another cup of bourbon balls . . .

Mother told me boys weren't boys once they got to college . . .

Punk cheerleading?

Can you tell what's Emile and what's oyster?

Do you know where the little girl's room is?

Do I go to Hinds? I'm Mr. HJC!

At last, someone who understands me . . .

Getting in and out of these fourth floor rooms is heck . . .

Hinds: a home for the nonconformist . . .

Editor's Message

It's been a long, hard year, but I guess that's kinda what I expected. In the course of putting the EAGLE together, I stepped on a few toes, for this I am sorry. I would like to thank the student body and faculty for their cooperation, for without them there would be no reason for a yearbook. I would also like to thank my small but hard working staff. And special thanks to Bob Hodges, for making it as easy as possible.

Good Luck,

Mickey Welsh
